Aimed at: All People

The British Red Cross has been a lifeline for people in crisis for over 150 years. Today, in the wake of the Coronavirus pandemic, that lifeline means more than ever.

Thanks to our dedicated team of Red Cross Volunteers, we're able to provide services specifically designed to help people most in need in the UK.

If you or someone you care for needs support, we may be able to help.

Emotional support
Mobility aids services
Refugee services
Help at home
Financial support
Help to find missing family

We also provide a range of free mental health resources and practical advice on how to prepare for emergencies.
