The Early Help Unit provides a direct contact point for professionals and families requiring early help services in Nottinghamshire. The Unit acts as a signposting and referral point for Early Help Services but does not directly deliver them.

Specific elements of this service include local Children's Centres and the Family Service

The Early Help Unit will provide information and advice and will signpost professionals and families on to non-County Council services, as well as accepting referrals on behalf of Nottinghamshire's County Council early help services.

Any child or young person at immediate risk should be referred to the Multi-Agency Safeguarding Hub (MASH)

Lead professionals seeking direct intervention or looking to step-down at closure for ongoing support should consult the Nottinghamshire County Council Intranet for further guidance.

Professionals looking to make a referral to the Early Help Unit, to access support for Level 2 and 3 needs can use the new online referral form introduced to replace the previous referral element of the Early Help Assessment Form (EHAF), or to request Attendance Enforcement provision

Members of the public can contact the Early Help Unit by:

telephone: 0115 804 1248

email: early.help@nottsc.gov.uk

Specific elements of this service include Children's Centres:

- Universal services including play sessions, health support, & opportunities to train and volunteer.
- More focused support with: challenging behaviour; communication difficulties (Home Talk Programme); mother's mental health needs; diet & nutrition; domestic abuse; housing and debt issues.
- Parenting programmes & interventions including, Strengthening Families; Incredible Years.

Exclusion Criteria:

Young Carers (of adults) assessment – contact the Customer Service Centre

Child employment and entertainment licensing – contact the Children in Entertainment, Employment and Chaperone Licences team
