About Us

Equinox Physiotherapy was established over 19 years ago by directors Bethan Drinkall and Michael Douglas. Beth and Doug both share a passion for quality neuro rehabilitation.

Location

Our practice in Cross Hands has grown and we are now a strong team of neuro physiotherapists, associate specialist therapists, aquatic therapists and rehabilitation coaches. The team operate across South and West Wales.

Our Therapists

Our therapists take a holistic approach to treatments which could include associate partner services for the client's wellbeing. We have a depth and mix of skill in the team who specialise in neuro physiotherapy, MSK and paediatric physiotherapy. We are proud of the wealth of clinical knowledge and experience within our team. It's important to us that our employees continue to learn.

Most of all we are approachable and enthusiastic which we impart to our customers.

Our work in the community

Beth and Doug are passionate about the charities Equinox Physiotherapy support. Find out more about the charities the team support from Ski4All Wales, BackUp

Trust and Headway.

Placements for Students

The team are keen on ensuring ongoing clinical placements in the field of Neurology, and have been clinical educators for second and third year physiotherapy students. Our therapists enjoy educating trainees and sharing their wealth of knowledge and experience.

Our Values.

Respect: We are always inclusive of everyone when it comes to creating the best treatment plan whilst respecting wishes and personal goals.

Extra mile: Our therapists are always prepared to go above and beyond for all of our clients. We ensure all aspects of their wellbeing and treatment options are considered to improve their lifestyle.

Life skills: Our practice is based on making sure that we strive to improve quality of life.

Safe place: Our clinic is friendly and full of enthusiastic therapists ready to welcome our patients. Every individual has the right to feel safe and secure whilst receiving treatment and support.

Quality: We pride ourselves on being client focused and providing the highest quality of care and treatment.
