Homelessness - Contacting the housing needs team

If you already homeless or worried about losing your present home, contact the Housing Needs Team now because the sooner you do, the sooner help can be provided. Don't suffer in silence or bury your head in the sand as the problem won't go away, you can come into one of our offices, write to us, email us, give us a call, send a tweet or post on our Facebook page. There is always a Duty Officer available Monday - Friday between 9.00am and 5.00pm.

To assist us to help you as quickly as possible, please have documentation relating to your situation such as a Tenancy Agreement, Section 21 Notice, bank statement, wage slips, proof of ownership etc available and to hand. We also provide an out of hours homelessness service at weekends and bank holidays, 365 days per year for emergencies. Anyone requiring the emergency service should telephone 0800 590 542.
