GET READY FOR A BLAST

Up for a full-on fun day out? Look no further, The Full Shebang is just the ticket.

It's a day full of knock-your-socks-off performances, street shows and activities. The perfect opportunity to have fun with friends and family, close to home.

From the gravity-defying performance Why? and Urban Astronaut suspended 10 metres in the air as he trails the streets to hip-hop circus mash-ups in Roll Play and mad-cap fire-flinging Books! There's also street dance in Forbidden Identity exploring what it's like to grow up Deaf, the gentle and loveable What Happened to You? performed with puppets, and Shebang Introducing which brings live music from upcoming local talent.

Plus, the chance for a good old boogie time-travelling style with Time Machine Disco, mischievous street furniture causing mayhem with The Menagerie, and look out for the giant walkabout octopus and spider puppets!

There's also free drop-in circus workshops and The Poetry Takeaway will be open for your orders. Don't forget to keep your eyes peeled for a few other surprises!

The Full Shebang is produced and presented by First Art, a local arts charity that aims to inspire more people to experience and shape cultural events and activities in Ashfield, Mansfield, Bolsover and North East Derbyshire.

Please be aware we'll be filming and taking photos on the day. Please let one of our team (in bright pink t-shirts) know if you don't want to be included.

We hope you have a great day and thanks for being part of it.

About the Festival Guide

This guide is your Festival friend, with handy info on all the performances and events taking place. You'll find details of each event including what, when and where.

At the back you'll find a full timetable and map with all the locations marked out as well where you can find toilets, First Aid and the Festival Info Point.

We've included a handy 'See it All' schedule if you want to make sure you fit everything in (p28-29).

All shows and activities are suitable for all ages unless otherwise stated. We have a number of provisions in place to make the Festival as easy as possible for everyone to enjoy - you can find out more on page 4.

All information in this Festival Guide is correct at the time of going to print and subject to change without notice.

A HUGE THANKS

A huge thanks to our funders and supporters who've helped to make The Full Shebang possible.

ACCESS AT THE FULL SHEBANG

We're working to make The Full Shebang as accessible and easy as possible for everyone to enjoy. Here's what we have in place this year:

- Access Ambassadors will be at the event offering a friendly face and assistance to anyone with access-related needs. We also have plenty of stewards on hand to support you.
- An induction loop at the Festival Info Point (located in the Four Seasons Shopping Centre).
- British Sign Language (BSL) Interpreters available throughout the day. Should you require their assistance, please let a member of the team know.

A number of performances are also BSL Interpreted – please see separate event listings for details or ask one of the Festival Team.

There will be a roaming BSL interpreter on the day.

- A Large Print version of the Festival Guide will be available at the Festival Info Point.
- A digital version of this Guide is available at www.issuu.com/firstart
- Easy Read Guides are available for some performances from www.thefullshebang.co.uk or by dropping into the Festival Info Point.

- An accessible viewing area for performances in Market Place. These areas are for wheelchair users, those who require a close-up view, or disabled people who may be unable to stand for long periods of time.
- We have additional access support for some shows including audio described and BSL interpreted performances. Check individual show listings or speak to a member of the Festival team to find out what is available.
- A Quiet Zone located at the back of Festival Info Point.
- Noise cancelling headphones (these will be sanitised) available from Festival Info Point (please note we have a limited number available).
- Performances from Market Place will be Live Streamed to our Facebook page and YouTube channel for those unable to make it to the Festival in person.
- The Full Shebang Team will be out and about ready to help (look out for the pink t-shirts). You'll also find us at The Full Shebang Info Point located in Four Seasons Shopping Centre.
- Accessible toilets will be located in Market Place

You can find more information from our Festival Access Guide at www.firststart.org.uk/tfsaccess

ACCESS AMBASSADORS

As part of our work to make The Full Shebang more accessible we have a team of Access Ambassadors at the Festival. The Access Ambassadors (you'll spot them in yellow t-shirts) are on hand throughout the day to provide a friendly face to meet, support and guide you every step of the way.

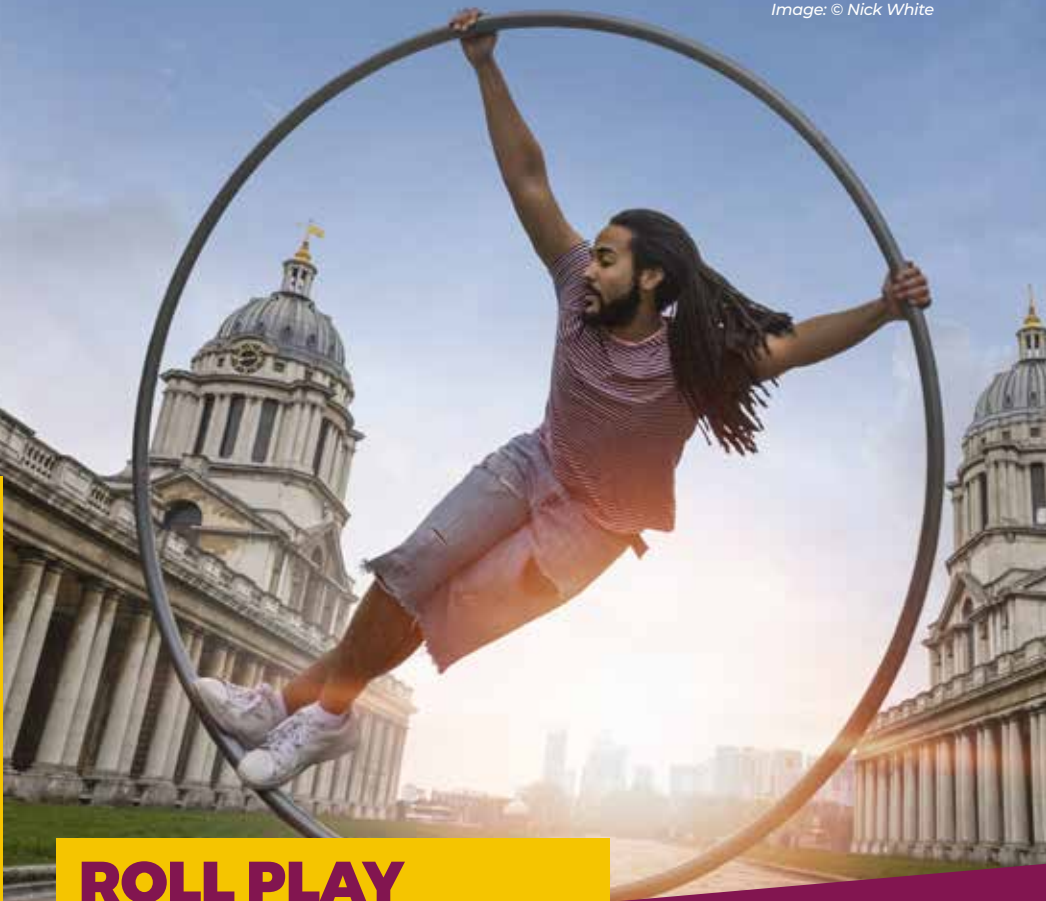

The Access Ambassadors will be able to answer questions, provide directions and more information about access provisions at the Festival. They will be at the Festival

Info Point throughout the day as well as at other performance areas.

The Access Ambassadors team are made up of local people advising and helping us improve access so it's as easy as possible for everyone to enjoy The Full Shebang.

If you'd like to find out more or are interested in becoming an Access Ambassador, drop us a line at access@firststart.org.uk

Our Access Ambassador scheme is supported by Without Walls.

ROLL PLAY

by Simple Cypher

PERFORMANCE

Prepare to be amazed by explosive tricks and artful dexterity as three performers blur the boundaries between hip-hop and circus.

Market Place

1pm • 3pm (lasts 30 mins)

Suitable for all ages

Join Simple Cypher at their hip-hop circus workshop

- see page 23 for details

A folding bench is the meeting point for three strangers from different walks of life: a park bench, a bus stop, a waiting room. What unfolds is a series of playful interactions challenging identity, status and societal roles.

Divisions between class, race and education are shattered, as the characters go on a journey of building trust, lending support and discovering connections between one another – focusing on their similarities, not their differences.

simplecypher.com

   @simplecypher

Roll Play is supported by Without Walls and Brighton Festival; Norfolk and Norwich Festival; Salisbury International Arts Festival, part of Wiltshire Creative, and Hat Fair.

Further commissioning, funding and support from Arts Council England, 101 Outdoor Arts and Stratford Circus.

WHY?

by Gravity & Levity

PERFORMANCE

Performed on a dance floor flipped 90 degrees and suspended high in the air, Why? is both a tender and exhilarating aerial duet exploring themes of life, loss, surrender and acceptance in a soft and moving way.

Market Place

12.30pm • 3.30pm (lasts 22 mins)

Suitable for all ages

'Why?' uses climbing harnesses and abseil lines to dance a 'vertical dance' and is performed to a powerfully haunting commissioned sound score, with spoken word interspersed throughout the piece.

gravity-levity.net

 @gravityandlevity

  @gravitylevity

Why? is supported by Without Walls and commissioned by Norfolk and Norwich Festival.

Why? was re-created with generous support from Arts Council England, The Point, Fidget Feet and the Irish Aerial Creation Centre.

BOOKS!

by Tit for Tat

PERFORMANCE

A mad-cap circus-theatre show featuring acrobatics, fire-juggling, eccentric absurdity, terrible puns and, of course, books.

Four bedraggled book enthusiasts travel from town to town – forced between the margins – on a mission to protect literature.

It seems these bookworms take their immersion to dangerously extreme lengths. But with the membership numbers of their strange little book club dwindling, they must embark on a quest to recruit more radical reading enthusiasts.

FORBIDDEN IDENTITY

by Billy Read, produced by Deaf Explorer

PERFORMANCE

Forbidden Identity explores the personal struggle of a Deaf child growing up in a hearing world, denied access to British Sign Language and a Deaf community.

Using street dance, tutting, mime, and sign language, Billy Read collaborated with Deaf dancers Ariel Fung and Ben Randall to create the piece, with narrative support and mentorship from Deaf Theatre maker, Brian Duffy and directed by Johnny Autin (Autin Dance Theatre).

Market Place

11am • 2.30pm (lasts 20 mins)

Suitable for all ages

   DefMotion

Commissioned by Appetite and funded by Arts Council England and Deaf Explorer.

WHAT HAPPENED TO YOU?

by Nikki Charlesworth

PERFORMANCE

What Happened to You? follows three raggedy puppets - Little Red, Noodles and Bo - who, like their puppeteers, are just trying to get through the day. Ahead of them lies a mountain of challenges and they are forced to find creative ways to overcome their impassable surroundings.

Weaving together scenarios inspired by real-life stories, this show explores preconceptions about disability in a playful and humorous way. Enjoyable for the whole family.

URBAN ASTRONAUT

by Highly Sprung

WALKABOUT*

The Full Shebang Festival 2022

The future. Earth is uninhabitable, destroyed by environmental pollution. But could this devastation be prevented?

Suspended 10 metres in the air on a gravity defying flying machine, the Urban Astronaut will travel through Mansfield to provide a glimpse of a not-so dystopian future.

CREATE A WORLD-SAVING CHATTERBOX

with Author Alice Harman and Illustrator Pete Gray

DROP-IN WORKSHOP

Author Alice Harman and illustrator Pete Gray have taken the humble paper fortune teller (you know, the playground game loved by generations) and made it into something extra special. The Chatterbox. A world-saving Chatterbox no less.

Each Chatterbox will feature a special alien character designed under Pete's watchful eye. Then, guided by Alice (who's written all sorts of fab books for younger beings, including ones on climate change) the Chatterbox-creator will add some eco-challenges.

-  Mansfield Central Library
-  10.30am - 1pm • 2pm - 4pm
(drop-in sessions, no booking required)
-  Suitable for ages 5+

Children will also have the chance to ask Alice and Pete any questions they have about being an author or illustrator and creating books and artwork.
