

WALKS OF LIFE

Walks of life museum 33 Lincoln road
Tuxford Newark NG220HR Free event

Saturday 11th November 2 pm refreshments Talk about the life of the Squatters post war.

World War 11 created a mass housing shortage Due to the bombing rationing of materials and a shortage of a skilled workforce. Building was very difficult. Renting or buying was impossible. From the poorest to those with well paid jobs were affected. There were 3.5 million demobilised service men. In August 1946 Mass squatting began people were living in Nissen huts on Abandon ex service sites. See a hut at the museum as well as war related items
