NATIONAL
COPRODUCTION WEEK
1-5 JULY 2024

Integrated Care System
Nottingham & Nottinghamshire

Introduction to national Coproduction Week!

- Hosted by the Social Care Institute for Excellence (SCIE), coproduction week is an opportunity to celebrate coproduction & explore how we can coproduce more.
- This year's theme is 'Coproduction: What's Missing?' and during the week we are collaborating with partner organisations to consider how to:
 - Increase equity & diversity in coproduction.
 - Make coproduction meaningful.
- Have a look at our programme of events to find out how you can get involved...

Shared Learning Webinar: Getting Started with Meaningful Coproduction

Hosted by Small Steps Big Changes (SSBC), this free session will provide an in-depth understanding of meaningful coproduction and its impact on people's lives. During the session, participants will:

- Develop confidence working in coproduced ways by identifying helpful skills and knowledge.
- Hear directly from people who have worked in a coproduced way and learn about their experiences and how it has impacted them.

The webinar is designed to showcase the powerful impact of coproduction when done correctly. By sharing stories from people with lived experience, SSBC hope to inspire and motivate participants to embrace coproduction and its potential to create positive change.

Whether you are a service provider, researcher or someone with lived experience, this webinar will equip you with the necessary tools and knowledge to engage in meaningful coproduction.

Book your place today, on the registration page.
