

Community Grants Volunteer of the Year: Derek Wilkinson

As one of ten fantastic volunteers making up the Bassetlaw Community Grants panel, Derek was nominated for Community Grants Volunteer of the Year. Derek has been volunteering as a community grants panel member for the last year. However this is on top of nearly 50 years of voluntary work both in Bassetlaw and overseas.

‘Derek has excellent local knowledge and judgment. He is charming to work with, full of wit and bonne aimee!’

Derek

- ✓ Conducts diligent research, enabling the whole panel to achieve informed decision making.
- ✓ Has an excellent discussion technique drawing in the thoughts of others.
- ✓ Is an inspitaion to many.
- ✓ Enjoys volunteering, which has improved his overall wellbeing and sense of worth.