

Young Volunteer of the Year: Jessica McGlone

Jess has been a keen fundraiser and volunteer since she was just 3 years old, she's raised over £10,000 for Sheffield children's hospital charity over the years where Jessica has had over 14 operations.

‘Jessica's ability to interact warmly and effectively with the community has not only strengthened our relationships but also enhanced our outreach efforts.’

Award collected by Jessica's mother, Heather

Jessica

- ✓ Volunteers for 'From The Heart' (FTHC) at events and helps to fundraise.
- ✓ Loves interacting with the children and making sure they are having fun.
- ✓ Thinks of ideas to help fundraise not just for FTHC, but other charities too, and this year is running Race for Life.
- ✓ Has gained confidence through volunteering and interacting with the public. Jess was born with a disability and has faced a lot of challenges in life, however, volunteering has improved her health and wellbeing immensely.
