

Volunteer of the Year: Nina Theideman

Nina works tirelessly finding funding opportunities to keep the village hall doors open.

‘As a result of her tireless hard work and dedication, the hall is now breaking even with the accounts.’

‘Nina is an absolute star!’

Nina

- ✓ Organises and runs various events to fund raise for charity, despite health issues she keeps going.
- ✓ Organises and assists with weekly activities for elderly residents, such as dominoes, draughts, chess, cards, darts, and for the more energetic badminton.
- ✓ Is appreciated by the local community for her commitment to the hall.
- ✓ Sometimes can suffer with her mental health but volunteering gives her the motivation to fight through it which improves her overall wellbeing.
