

Environmental Volunteer of the Year: Steve Johnson

Steve has been volunteering at Bassetlaw Foodbank, helping with the Lunch Club, for a couple of years.

‘He is such an asset to the charity and really enjoys volunteering at Lunch Club, meeting people, trying new recipes and helping run and important and highly valued project.’

Steve

- ✓ Is an integral part of the small Lunch Club team, helping serve meals to around 60 people a week.
- ✓ Takes all of the lunch club recycling home as there are not the resources at the venue and is passionate about the environment.
- ✓ Is star baker, making delicious desserts for 60 people each week and then undertakes all the washing up.
- ✓ Loves volunteering, which has made his confidence grow, not only in his cooking ability but his general confidence too.
